TERM OF REFERENCE

The 3rd International Conference on Humanity, Education, Law and Social Science (ICHELSS)

INTRODUCTION

The development of science, especially in the social sciences, has experienced dynamic development although distortions of sciences objectives still existed while obscuring the meaning of science itself. In educational sciences, the aim to increase the intelligence and public morals is being castrated and damaged by certain people including by those educational actors. Meanwhile, the goals of the legal studies which should be used to uphold justice within the society are often misused for the benefit of certain group interests. Similarly, in the field of administrative science, the goals to have effective and efficient governance and services are used to benefit interests of certain people.

There are still many other problems occur within the development of the science and frequently implemented that must be answered and discussed intensively to protect sacred goals of the science. Academic ambiance and spirits have to be returned as challenges keeps interfering within this digital development of the society. By this condition, the conference is an important step and expected to be a comprehensive pace in aligning various scientific problems and interests as the consequence of 5.0 era of society.

International Conference on Humanities Education, Law, and Social Science (ICHELSS) is a conference for those who are interested in presenting papers in all fields of social sciences. Conference topics focus on several disciplines including Humanity, Law, Education, Cultural and Communication Studies, History, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Art, Administration, Linguistics, and Library Sciences. This conference is a forum for discussion between various parties such as academicians, policy makers and social practitioners. On the other hand, it is expected that the conference can show various kinds of cultural differences throughout the world. The additional purpose of this conference is to provide a place for academicians and professionals with interdisciplinary/multi-disciplinary interests related to social sciences to meet and interact with members both within and outside their own disciplines. Selected papers that have been peer reviewed and accepted will later be published in the ICHELSS Proceedings by an internationally reputable publisher.

In 2023, ICHELSS targeted papers in the fields of Law, Education, Cultural and Communication Studies, History, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Art, Administration, Linguistics, and Library Sciences related to the existence of the 4th industrial revolution known as society 5.0.
